

PLANETIZEN Courses

American Planning Association
California Chapter

The Benefits of Planetizen Online Video Courses

Learn Practical Skills

Learn the latest software tools, with courses on a wide range of topics.

Earn Continuing Education Credits

Earn certificates for completing courses. Add certificates to your LinkedIn profile.

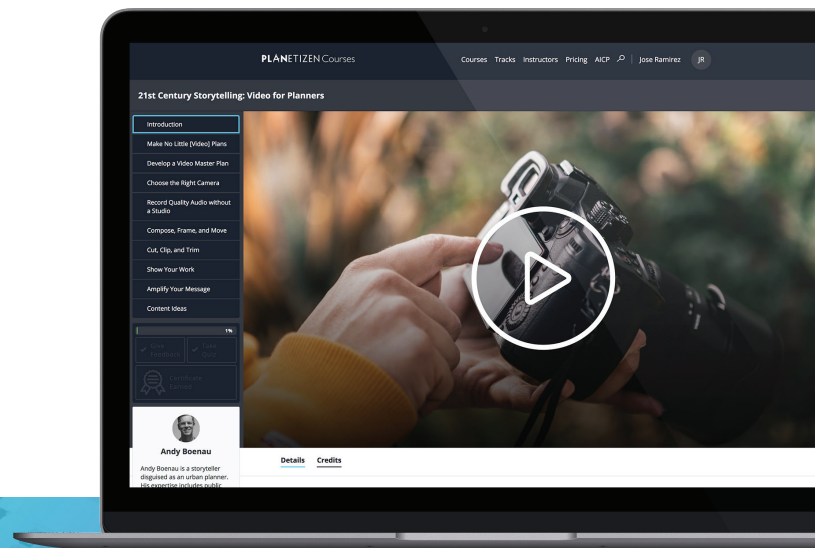

Access Hundreds of Courses

Flexible monthly, annual, and group subscriptions available.

Planetizen Courses are taught by practitioners and experts in the field.

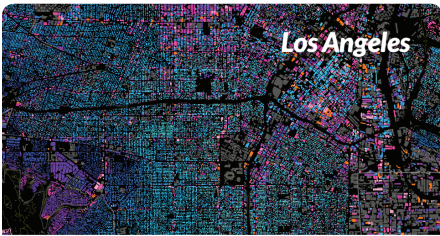

Additional Benifits

- Access entire course library with your subscription
- New courses added weekly
- Track your progress through courses
- Learn anytime, anywhere on your computer, smartphone, tablet
- Group plans available for your firm, agency or university

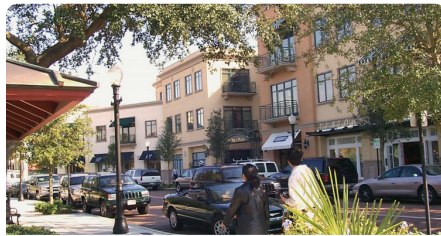

“Planetizen is the most trusted resource for the urban planning, design, and development communities.”

Popular Courses

Introduction to WebGIS

This course explains various Internet technologies commonly used to build web-based visualization applications with municipal data.

Form-Based Codes 101

Introduction of form-based coding through a combination of presentations, discussions and case studies from the leading practitioners and innovators.

Urban Sustainability Appraisal Tools

How green rating and assessment tools can be used to leverage expert knowledge, improve local decision-making, and monitor progress toward goals.

Climate Action Planning

Introduction of a process for developing and implementing local climate actions.

GIS Fundamentals

Learn key concepts about geographic information systems (GIS) and how to use ESRI's popular ArcGIS software to make maps

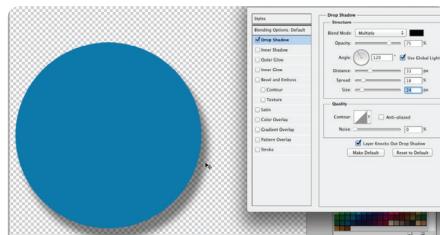

Planning Ethics

The course will help you learn about both the principles and application of the AICP code of ethics using actual scenarios and discussions.

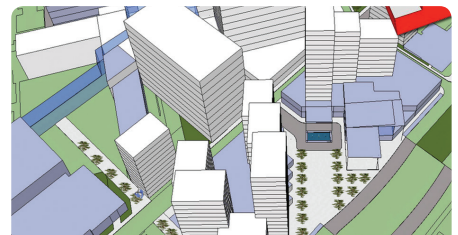

Real Estate Finance for Planners

This course enables planners to better understand development feasibility in context of the regulatory environment.

Adobe Photoshop for Planners

Learn about basic and more complex tools through step-by-step instruction.

Designing Plans With SketchUp

Learn how to use the programs geolocation functions, create complex models, and create an advanced rendering of a SketchUp site model to design realistic lighting and shading.

Planetizen Courses offers Educator tools, ONLY available to groups:

Track group
members activity

Track group member progress toward certificates

Assign courses to specific subgroups

Assign or revoke licenses through a web interface

Join the Growing Number of Planetizen Subscribers!

