

Why join APA?
 APA offers professional advantages that fuel career success.

Career services

APA's online Career Center offers valuable resources for job seekers.

Networking

Make meaningful connections to potential mentors, employers, and planning leaders.

Professional certification

Earn the prestigious AICP certification, which you can begin at any stage in your career—see planning.org/aicp/why

Planning's premier event

Experience the newest trends and latest innovations in planning, and learn from experts from around the globe at our annual National Planning Conference.

Must-read publications

Stay up to date with your free subscription to Planning magazine, the Planning Advisory Service, and other professional publications.

Essential info

Explore the new Research KnowledgeBase and more in the most comprehensive collection of practical planning knowledge anywhere.

Professional education

Expand your expertise with online and in-person learning that fits your schedule.

Your planning community

Connect with planners in your area through your chapter, and link to those who share your planning passions through our 21 divisions.

Introductory rate

Join APA now for the special rate of $99 a year for your first two years—which includes both APA and chapter dues.